

Interview about Big Mike Day Trading Forum

Q1

Beth, it's a pleasure to be able to speak with you today in this Interview about your Big Mike Day Trading Forum's experience.

How long have you been a Big Mike member?

A1

Thanks for the invitation Nelson. I've been with Big Mike for about six months.

Q2

I understand from our earlier chat that you tried a few other forums and day trading rooms before. All of them lasted for a few weeks or 2 months. What led you to become such an enthusiastic Big Mike member?

A2

It's 5Cs that make Big Mike so unique and outstanding in the trading community. I'm proud to be part of the Big Mike family.

Q3

5C's! Seemed like you enjoy Big Mike as if it's a diamond mine! What do 5Cs stand for?

A3

5Cs are: Confidence, Competence, Consistency, Comforting and Comrade.

I have been developing and enjoying these 5Cs from Big Mike.

I believe it's not only me. Many other members have been referring the forum as a gold mine.

Q4

What difficulties have you been facing in developing your trading career? Now that you are a Big Mike fan, how does Big Mike himself or the forum for that matter be of any help?

A4

In the past, my challenges were being too aggressive and scattered everywhere. With the continuous support and reminder I must say from Big Mike himself, I am now more focussed and disciplined. To me, I am definitely on the right track to realize a Successful Trading Career on a consistent basis.

Q5

As you very rightly pointed out, newbies are quite often lost in their pursuit of the trading career. What would be your advice to them?

A5

If they're seriously committed to have trading as their life-time career, my advice is obvious. Join Big Mike today and start a thread to capture their learning experience. They will be surprisingly amazed by the tremendous support and guidance they will get from Big Mike himself and other members.

Q6

What does the future hold for you - any exciting plans and development now that you have been with Big Mike for a while?

A6

I will continue improving my trade management skills, commit to be consistent and focussed. Last but not least, continue my growth with the Big Mike family members.

Beth, it was great being able to speak with you and to learn so much about Big Mike. I'm sure that all our audiences appreciate your sharing and your advice on choosing Big Mike to be their trading partner. I wish you all the best for the future.

Happy Birthday to the Big Mike Day Trading Forum!
